Disney's Aladdin Jr. is based on the 1992 Academy Award-winning film and the 2014 hit Broadway show about the "diamond in the rough" street rat who learns that his true worth lies deep within. Wanting to earn the respect of the princess, Jasmine, Aladdin and friends embark on an adventure that will test his will and moral character. With expanded characters, new songs, and more thrills, this new adaptation of the beloved story performed by local youth ages 6-18 will open up "a whole new world!"

Inland Pacific Ballet Academy's Broadway Workshop Program provides a platform for youth to experience firsthand the professional elements of putting on musical theater performances. Cast members ages 6-18 are selected by open audition to work with industry professionals and receive coaching in dancing, acting and singing. The five-week summer program culminates with public performances of the selected production.
